

MCG STRENGTHENS ITS GROWTH POSITIONING WITH PEAK ROCK CAPITAL PARTNERSHIP

Minneapolis, MN – MCG Energy Solutions, LLC (“MCG”), a provider of a broad array of mission-critical solutions to energy companies, industrial businesses, and other entities on a global scale, announced that it has received a structured debt investment from an affiliate of Peak Rock Capital (“Peak Rock”), a leading middle-market private investment firm.

MCG designs and delivers software for energy accounting, trading, scheduling, transmission, credit and market risk, outage management, operator logging, workforce/health & safety, and data analytics for the global marketplace.

Brenda Huebsch, MCG’s CEO, shared: “We are very excited to partner with Peak Rock and its team as we position ourselves for the next level of growth while maintaining our industry-leading product suite, customer service, and FedRAMP-level security standards.”

In addition to its initial investment, Peak Rock has committed incremental funding to support additional organic and inorganic growth initiatives as MCG continues to seek acquisition opportunities.

“MCG has developed a comprehensive product portfolio that is able to efficiently optimize and streamline customer workflows across the entire power & energy value chain as well as serve an ever-expanding industrial customer base,” said Karson Chang, Managing Director at Peak Rock Capital. “We look forward to supporting the continued growth of MCG’s product portfolio and functionality to serve new and existing customers.”
